Dear Member,

The first meeting of the Society back at Lettsom House will take place on Wednesday 13th October 2021 when Professor Jonathan Waxman, BSc MD FRCP will address the Society on

PROSTATE CANCER

Jonathan Waxman is Professor of Oncology at the Hammersmith Hospital, London. In his early research work he was involved in the development of the LHRH agonists as a treatment for prostate cancer as an alternative to orchiectomy. At the Hammersmith he has worked on the hormonal regulation of prostate cancer, and in clinical trials of new drugs for cancer. With a colleague, he raised funds for the building of the Hammersmith Cancer Centre whose spirit aims to combine the best of conventional and alternative therapies. He founded Prostate Cancer UK, the first United Kingdom national organisation promoting research and patient support for prostate cancer, which prior to Covid 19 had an annual income of £30 million and employed 200 people. He helped establish the All Party Parliamentary Group Against Cancer to improve cancer treatment and rationalise cancer research throughout the UK. He has co-authored a law book and published three works of fiction.

This lecture will provide an update on the modern management of prostate cancer.

There will be a Buffet Supper at 6.45pm and the Meeting will start at 8.00pm. The cost of the evening, to include the lecture and supper will be £42 per person for Members and Guests. You are asked to send your remittance with the slip below to reach the Executive Secretary by FRIDAY, 8th OCTOBER if you wish to attend. If paying by Bacs please email the Society that it is your intention to be present.

Yours faithfully,
Dr Robina Coker BSc PhD MB BS FRCP
